

Rewarding Self Employment Opportunities Await You!

For

(Alliston, Collingwood, Midland Orillia and surrounding areas).

If you have experience in the field of developmental disabilities, and interested in being a self-employed CHAP worker (Community Helpers for Active Participation) committed to providing occasional hours to families who have children, and/or adults with special needs; developmental and/or physical disabilities.

This is what families are looking for:

- CHAP workers; committed, available caring and creative people to work one-to-one for Special Services At Home contracts. To work with individuals who have special needs to assist them in their personal growth and development.

&

- CHAP workers; committed, available caring and creative people to work with children and/or adults with special needs. Providing Respite Care Service in the family's home or in your own home. This can be for a few hours a week or maybe one weekend a month.

Note: Families interview and hire workers that they feel will provide the kind of service needed for their family member. Families are the employers.

What you get in return:

- * Rewarding self-employment opportunities with flexible hours.
- * The chance to share in someone's happiness creating bonds of friendship.
- * Notice on any upcoming events or information for registered CHAP workers.
- * The opportunity to be an important support within a system of care in your Community.
